

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
--------------------------------	-----

Introduction

Theologizing in Contemporary Malaysia – Prospects and Opportunities	1
Jonathan Yun-Ka Tan and Kah-Jin Jeffrey Kuan

Part I

Biblical Interpretation

Treatment of Gēr as a Guide to Interreligious Dialogue	25
Fook Kong Wong

“Even If (God Does) Not, We Will Not”	43
A Christian Reflection from Daniel 3
Elaine Wei-Fun Goh

Populism and Nationalism	59
A Yahwistic Critique of Jonah’s Religious Nationalism
Philip P. Chia

“For All of You Are One in Christ Jesus” (Gal 3:28)	83
Paul’s Social Vision Beyond Inclusivity and Diversity
Kar Yong Lim

Part II

Theology and Ethics

Wawasan 2020 and Christianity in Religiously Plural Malaysia	119
Edmund Kee-Fook Chia

From Fetish to Forgiveness	139
A Žižekian Intrusion on How the Church “Enjoys” Herself for the Sake of the World
Alwyn Lau

Christian-Muslim Relations in New Malaysia	159
Overcoming Barriers, Building Bridges
Albert Sundararaj Walters

Part III

Missiology, Practical Theology, and Christian Education

Hybrid and Hybridising	197
Malaysian Identity, Presence and Mode in Theology, Theologising and Mission
John Cheong

What Might a Practical Theological Reflection on Religious Freedom and Social Engagement Look Like in Light of a Resurgence of Islamization in Malaysia?	221
Arch Chee-Keen Wong

“Does Learning Style Matter?”	253
Primary Lessons for Asian Theological Education from a Case Study of Indigenous and Non-Indigenous Seminary Students in Malaysian Borneo Using the Felder-Soloman Index of Learning Styles
Joy Oy-Mooi Saik and Siatw Fung Chong

Concluding Malaysian Diasporic Reflections from the Ends of the Earth	275
Contextuality and Marginality in Hermeneutical and Theological Method for the Third Millennium
Amos Wai-Ming Yong

Contributors	289
----------------------------	-----

Index	291
---------------------	-----